THE ELECTION.

The Polls, The People and the Prospects.

How the American Citizen is Airing His Inalienable Rights in the City To-day.

The election to-day is proving thus far one of the most earnest and closely contested of any State election ever known.
The municipal elections are usually productive of more blood and bluster and local animosities and consequent strife than are those in which prospective city officers have no share and no "friends" to influence. True, there are today a large number of candidates for county offices vigorously prosecuting the work and bringing every influence to bear upon both their friends and enemies in order to succeed, but in no contest is there such opportunity for influencing the easily influenced class of the voting element as in that for power in municipal matters. No class of office holders have so great favors to bestow as city officials, and the consequence is that the city elections are usually the most fiercely contested.

To-day, however, the voting element seems thoroughly awake, and the issues of the campaign, with their peculiarity and with the prospects of a close vote, are bringing nearly every man to the polls. During the campaign for several years the canvass has been as thorough and the demonstrations as great. The consequence is that the entire vote of the city is being polled to-day, and while personal feelings and animosities are not running as high as on other occasions, a great deal of quiet work is being done.

The candidates were on hand at the opening of the polls and challenging committees from each party posted themselves at nearly every voting place at an early hour, evidently determined to prevent anything illegal on the other side of the fence at least.

The work mostly seems to be of a quiet but most persistent nature, and the amount of drunkenness and bluster is visibly less than on former occasions.
The police are at the polls in full uniform and are finding the task of keeping order an unusually easy one. The leaders and candidates are depending more upon quiet earnest work than usual.

Said a prominent Democrat to a STAR reporter this morning:
"We are going to carry the city to-day by a larger majority than last year."
"Do you think so?"
"Think I don't think anything about it--I know it."

"On what grounds?"
"On the grounds that the people are beginning to use common sense in their voting affairs. Many of the factories and factory hands in the city are idle, or are only partly or receiving half wages, and the people are beginning to see the need for more money."

"But will the vote be as large as last year?"
"Yes, I think it will. The campaign has been very thorough, and the people are pretty well awake on the subject."

"Will you get the German vote as completely as formerly?"
"Certainly so, I think."

"And what else?"
"That of every one out of employment."

"That of every one who has watched the course of the Republican party during the past three years?"
"What about the State?"

"It will give a heavier majority for Allen than last election. The Western Reserve vote of which they talk will be more than balanced by the vote in the mining and manufacturing regions where more money is needed."

The majority of the Democrats seemed confident of a majority similar to that of last year in the city. In the wards where the German vote is in the preponderance, however, the prospects are not so encouraging as were hoped for by many.

A leading Republican said to a STAR man this morning, "The vote this year will make a different showing than that of last."

"How so?"
"We will carry nearly the entire German vote, which was lost to us last

"Do you think that the rag-money idea will gain many votes for the other side?"
"No. The only ones that will be affected by that are the class out of employment, who are always out of money; anyhow, and they were with the other party before."

"Have not the Democrats pushed the campaign more vigorously than your men?"
"They have held more public meetings, made greater demonstrations, but their work has not been half as thorough.
Our work has been more quiet, but today will prove that it has been more effective."

"What do you mean by quiet work?"
"I mean private argumentative logical reasoning and quiet button-hole discussions, which will result in quiet 'vest-pocket' votes." Our speech-making has been good and carried weight with it.
No speech made during the campaign made as many votes for our party as did that of Carl Schurz."

"What do you expect 'as to the results?"
"I expect a very close vote in the city and a victory in the county."

"I expect a Republican victory by from fifteen to twenty-five thousand majority.
I know of Allen men who are betting two to one on Hayes."

STAR reporters visited the voting places in the city between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock to-day, obtaining the number of votes cast and the prospects so far as it was possible to judge from the reports and observations.

FIRST WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 197. This precinct one year ago gave 289 votes, with a majority of 7 for the Republican ticket. Last spring it polled 390, with a Democratic majority of 10. To-day both parties are claiming it, but the probabili-ties are in favor of the Republicans. It will probably poll over 400 votes.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 402, with probably not over 200 majority on either side. The precinct last spring polled 557 votes. To-day it will give from 530 to 600, with a light majority for the Democratic ticket, Cary excepted.

Third Precinct--Votes cast, 169. The Republicans claim a majority thus far and probably have it. The ward will be likely to give a Republican majority of from 75 to 100.

Fourth Precinct--Votes cast, 123, with a Democratic majority of from ten to twenty-five. The precinct last spring gave Johnson a majority of 105. Allen will have over half the votes this year, but not more than sixty-five.

SECOND WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 399, with a majority conceded for the Republicans.
The ward last spring gave Robinson a majority of 100, and it is claimed by the Republicans that their majority will exceed that to-day. The Democrats, however, are hopeful and predict a victory in the whole ward. Wise is running ahead here, and Humphreys is also largely ahead.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 147. Both parties claim a majority. The vote will be close in this ward. The Republicans were 34 ahead last spring. The Democrats claim the vote will carry the precinct to-day. The precinct gave 314 votes last spring, and will probably exceed that number to-day.

THIRD WARD.

precinct last spring gave a Democratic majority of 15, but is claimed by from 150 to 300 by the Republicans, as many of the German voters are declaring for Hayes and hard money. The Democrats concede a light Republican majority.
The vote will be fairly Republican and will probably give a Republican majority of from 100 to 150.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 387. This precinct is difficult to estimate, as a considerable portion of the German vote that was given to Johnston last spring is on the Republican side to-day. The vote last spring was 798, with a majority of 673 for Johnston. The Republicans claim the vote will be nearly even, while the Democrats think they will lose more than 50 or 75 votes. The Third ward will to-day poll nearly 1,500 votes.

FOURTH WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 496. Democrats largely ahead, and it is claimed gaining on the vote of last year. The Democratic majority last year was 687, in a total vote of 1,087. The Republicans are hopeful, and think they will reduce the majority by from 25 to 75. Excitement is running high. Gaghan and Cary are being scratched somewhat.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 307. The vote will probably run about parallel with that of last year. Humphreys is slightly ahead, and the general impression is that Cary is being badly cut. The vote will be very evenly divided.

FIFTH WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 243. The contest is close and exciting here. Both parties are out in full force and rallying up the voters everywhere. Stephens is making a good run here, and there is not a great amount of scratching being done.
The precinct polled 500 votes last spring, and from present appearances will equal that vote.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 399. The Democrats are considerably in the majority here, but the Republicans claim that they will reduce the majority of last year by from 25 to 75. Excite-
are being scratched somewhat.

slightly ahead, and the general impres-

SIXTH WARD.

contest here is evidently very close. All classes are out, and while the Republicans claim that they are gaining ground the Democrats are sanguine that they will increase the majority of last spring.
Wise is evidently running ahead here as is also Humphreys. The precinct last spring polled 1070 votes, with a majority for Johnston of 218. The result will probably be similar to-day.

SEVENTH WARD.

precinct last spring gave a Democratic majority of 231. It is claimed by the Republicans to-day that they will carry the ward. It is evident that at least the vote will be much nearer even than last spring, and that the German element, which controls the precinct, are going largely to the Republican side to-day.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 478. The precinct will poll nearly a thousand votes, with probably a light Republican majority. Birnbaum is making a good run here, and will probably run ahead of his ticket.

EIGHTH WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 340. The majority here is of course largely Democratic. The precinct will give a soft money majority of nearly 500. Wise will run ahead of his ticket, and Cary will run slightly behind. Otherwise the straight Democratic ticket will be ahead, as noted above.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 332. The vote will be nearly as heavy as that of last spring, and with about the same majority. Wise will run ahead of his ticket, and the Democratic majority may be reduced slightly. Last spring it was 246. To-day it will evidently be over 200.

NINTH WARD.

majority here last spring was 87 for the Republican ticket. To-day the probabili-ties are that the majority will be somewhat increased. Wise is running ahead, and Cary behind. Gaghan is also being scratched. Humphreys is running ahead, and Birnbaum is suffering.

Democratic majority here last spring was 186. To-day the Democrats claim the odds will go on the other side, and a very full vote will be polled.

TENTH WARD.

precinct gave last spring a vote of over a thousand, with a Johnston majority of nine. To-day the Democrats admit that the Republican majority will be from 150 to 250. A very full vote is being polled.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 307. The Republicans are evidently about here to a considerable extent. The precinct will poll a larger vote than on any former occasion. Johnston last spring received a majority of 30 here. To-day Hayes will receive twice that. Cary is being scratched. Considerable excitement is manifested.

ELEVENTH WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 532. The precinct will poll an unusually heavy vote, and will evidently give 150 to 200 Republican majority. Birnbaum is being scratched slightly, and so is Humphreys.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 227. The precinct last spring polled but 446 votes.
To-day it will run considerably over that, with a strong Republican majority. The Democrats are, however, hopeful, and claim that they will not fall behind the figures of last year.

TWELFTH WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 231. The Democrats conceded a Republican majority of at least 50 here, and the Republicans claim more than that. The vote will be unusually heavy, and will reach over 500.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 378. This precinct last spring gave Johnston a majority of 200. To-day well informed Democrats admit that Allen will not get over 50 majority, and Republicans claim that Hayes will carry the precinct by 100. The vote will be heavy.

THIRTEENTH WARD.

First Precinct--Votes cast, 331, with a decided Democratic majority. The precinct is at a times strongly Democratic, but will to-day fall behind the usual average. The ward will poll a heavy vote.
Gaghan is being scratched as is also Cary. Bell and Jacobs are running ahead.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 463. The vote here will be heavy. The precinct last spring gave Johnston 300 majority.
To-day the vote will be nearly even.
The conservative element is evidently returning to the Republicans here.

FOURTEENTH WARD.

vote is unusually heavy and will evidently be strongly Republican. The brewers here are mostly Republicans and are influencing the vote heavily.
Bell, Brown and White are running ahead of the ticket, however. Cary is suffering.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 479. This precinct will evidently give a Republican by something of a majority. Considerable scratching is being done. The Republicans claim a considerable increase over last year.

FIFTEENTH WARD.

Democratic majority here last spring was 38. The Democrats are working earnestly and claim that they will hold their own, and probably will.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 299. The vote here will be pretty nearly even, with a small Republican majority. The Democrats are scratching Cary fearfully, and the Republicans are cutting Birnbaum considerably. This precinct will poll about 625 votes.

SIXTEENTH WARD.

Democratic majority here last spring was 106. To-day it will probably be slightly reduced, but the change will not be very great. Matson is running ahead of his ticket, as are Humphreys and Young. Gaghan is suffering.

Second Precinct--Votes cast, 340. The Democratic majority, which was 274 last spring, will evidently be largely reduced. The ward will poll a full vote.
Cary and the dog tax are being slaughtered.

SEVENTEENTH WARD.

Republican majority of 38 given last spring will evidently be doubled to-day.
The soft money men are in the minority in the West End. The vote will probably reach nearly 400. Tafel and Birnbaum are being victimized. Cary and Noble are suffering. Humphreys is a favorite here.
